49 CFR Part 391.11 GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS OF DRIVERS.

- (a) A person shall not drive a commercial motor vehicle unless he/she is qualified to drive a commercial motor vehicle. Except as provided in 391.63, a motor carrier shall not require or permit a person to drive a commercial motor vehicle unless that person is qualified to drive a commercial motor vehicle.
- (b) Except as provided in subpart G of this part, a person is qualified to drive a commercial motor vehicle if he/she -
 - (1) Is at least 21 years old;
 - (2) Can read and speak the English language sufficiently to converse with the general public, to understand highway traffic signs and signals in the English language, to respond to official inquiries, and to make entries on reports and records;
 - (3) Can, by reason of experience, training, or both, safely operate the type of commercial motor vehicle he/she drives;
 - (4) Is physically qualified to drive a commercial motor vehicle in accordance with subpart E -- Physical Qualifications and Examinations of this part;
 - (5) Has a currently valid commercial motor vehicle operator's license issued only by one State or jurisdiction;
 - (6) Has prepared and furnished the motor carrier that employs him/her with the list of violations or the certificate as required by 391.27.
 - (7) Is not disqualified to drive a commercial motor vehicle under the rules in 391.15; and
 - (8) Has successfully completed a driver's road test and has been issued a certificate of driver's road test in accordance with 391.31, or has presented an operator's license or a certificate of road test which the motor carrier that employs him/her has accepted as equivalent to a road test in accordance with 391.33.

Definition of "domicile":

"domicile" means the true and permanent home of a person from which the person has no present intention of moving and to which the person intends to return whenever the person is away.

Both the Alaska and the CDL General Knowledge tests or equivalent are required to obtain a permit or license. You must pass the air brakes knowledge test or an "L" restriction will be added to the license or permit. You would be restricted to operating vehicles not equipped with air brakes. Class A and IA require the combination knowledge test.

FOR DIVISION USE ONLY (Scores valid for one year. Tests MUST be verified in STAR prior to issuance.)
